

MEXICADELIA FESTIVAL WEST COAST TOUR 2018

ABOUT

Mexicadelia is the collective identity of a group of bands / musicians from Guadalajara, Mexico.

They independently organize a free-public showcase of their local music scene called Festival Mexicadelia, for three consecutive years now and with an expansive revenue (going from 800 attendees the first year, to 3,000 in the last edition). The festival also includes foreign acts that are connected to these mexican artists, creating visibility for the local sounds and a platform for an international generation of independent music in Mexico.

The Guadalajara scene has grown a relationship with music communities in the West Coast of the United States, through a cultural exchange that has been taking place since 2014. After 4 years collaborating with north-american bands and independent festivals, we want to properly showcase Mexicadelia in the U.S. for the first time within the frame of a festival tour (mainly) in the cities of Seattle, Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego, also looking further into other cities where this community can be showcased.

The mission is to produce an event in each city with (5 to 8) touring bands from Mexico sharing stage with consolidated local acts at a venue (preferably open air) that can hold 150-300 people through the month of September, aiming for Seattle on Friday 08/09/18, Portland on Sunday 16/09/18 (Mexican Independence Day), San Francisco on Thursday 20/09/18, Los Angeles on Friday 21/09/18 and San Diego on Sunday 22/09/18.
